

Web Site Addresses (URL)

<http://www.disney.go.com/cybersafety/fun.html>

Protocol Name - http - Hypertext Transport Protocol tells you the page is a web page. This is the language that is used to find and send documents on the www.

Computer Name - is the name of the computer on which the page is stored.

Domain Name - This specifies its location. . Com Tells you the domain or kind of site.

Directory Name - tells you where on the computer the page is stored.

File Name - page name or file name of the page you're requesting.

When you type a Universal Resource Locator (URL or web site address), make sure that you copy it exactly. There are no spaces between letters.

Domain Type	What it Means
.com	a commercial business, organization, or company used for profit
.edu	an educational institution
.int	an international organization
.gov	a nonmilitary government entity
.mil	a military organization
.net	Domain name used for-profit companies, often Internet Services Providers
.org	other organizations: nonprofit
.uk, .au, ca, jp, ru, etc.	country codes denoting servers found in other countries