Our pre-k curriculum is designed to ...

- enable the children to connect new concepts and skills by building upon what they already know and are able to do.
- provide units or themes of interest that integrate and teach across all areas of the core curriculum (language arts, math, science, social studies, religion, & the arts).
- provide a variety of activities for the children to account for a wide range of developmental interests and abilities within the classroom.
- provide a climate that is active, one in which children interact and play with each other while engaging in cooperative hands-on learning.
- provide a safe learning environment that is sensitive to cultural, language, and learning differences among all children.
